PROJECTS

Audiophile E-commerce Website: React, Tailwind, React Hook, Vercel

I developed a multi-page e-commerce platform for audio products with product listings, detailed item pages, and a responsive shopping cart. I also Implements clean layouts from Figma designs, ensuring a mobile-first experience and seamless navigation.

Weather App: TypeScript, Next.js, Tailwind, Open-Meteo API, Vercel

I integrated Open-Meteo API to build a responsive weather app with search functionality, unit conversion, and detailed forecasts.

Digital Banking Landing Page – HTML, CSS, JavaScript, Vercel

I built a responsive landing page for a digital banking service, translating Figma designs into clean, accessible, and mobile-first layouts. I focused on performance, reusability, and modern styling to showcase key product features.
